

The Daily Office

2025

A Simple Guide to
Morning & Evening Prayer

What is the Daily Office?

The Daily Office is an ancient Christian practice that standardized prayer for all believers. It has gone through many iterations over the hundreds of years. This is a contemporary attempt to capture the heart of the office - that we all pray together, even if we pray separated from each other, we are engaging with the same scriptures, as a community.

This plan is a modified version from the Renewed Anglican Daily Office, and will take us through the book of Psalms several times, with 2 psalms a day. The plan leads us through more than the whole New Testament twice.

This Daily Office also includes confessing the Apostle's Creed, which is a summary of truths about God and our faith, akin to a cheat sheet, to keep us unified in the essentials of our belief as Christians. Be encouraged by these unchangeable facts of our reality.

I have found beginning with the Apostle's Creed centres my focus firmly on God and our future hope. From there I pray the Lord's Prayer 3 times, read the Psalm, pray again 3 times, and the Serenity Prayer, OT, pray again 3 times, NT, then close the formal time with the general confession, though I often find I'm all warmed up and carry on into the day or ready for sleep. May it be a launch pad of prayer for you as well.

Lastly, I was greatly encouraged with this thought - the Daily Office is not homework that must be completed, but a conversation starter that can last us our lifetime - if you fall off pace, just get back in the saddle and carry on. We don't play catch up, we strive to learn to walk with Christ without stumbling. I find the structure and regularity of the Daily Office readies my heart and mind to engage with God more throughout the day.

Yours in Christ,
Pastor Brock

S.O.A.P. Scripture Journalling

Scripture: Read the daily passages. Observation: Write a bit about what stood out, was noteworthy or unexpected. Application: write how you can apply some or one of your observations to your life. Prayer: write a prayer in response to the reading, observation and application or the things which are most on your mind today. You can also prayer the Lord's Prayer or the General Confession. What is God saying to you?

Many have found it helpful to journal the scriptures with the SOAP guide.

Wesley's Small Group Questions

Condensed by Dr. Jon Wiest modified by Pastor Brock

1. How was your week?
2. How is your soul?
3. What is God teaching you?
4. How is your relationship with God?

Each person can share in turn.

Cross talk (unrequested advice) is discouraged, - our society is much more starved in being known and heard than a lack of knowledge and wisdom - and people can grow more comprehensively when they are seeking assistance rather than more personal anecdotes and wisdom being thrust on them - but asking clarifying questions about what has been shared can be very beneficial.

Meeting weekly is a healthy, sustainable frequency if possible. Food is often a helpful aid to the beginning of the meeting.

Close in prayer.
